

Advanced Divorce Mediation Training Program - Course Description

This Advanced Mediation Training Program is a 2-day Live, Remote Participation Event from 10:00 am to 4:00 pm EST. It is approved for 10 CE and CLE credits.

Three experts in finance and law will present lecture and materials for attendees, who will be able to interact throughout the program. Topics include Equitable Distribution in Complex Financial Situations; Complex legal issues that may impede resolution without the intervention of an experienced Divorce Attorney, Business valuation techniques used by Business Valuation Experts. Real-world case examples will be presented to enhance each expert's presentation.

On Day 1, a two-hour morning lecture will be presented by a Certified Divorce Financial Analyst, followed by a thirty-minute Q&A period. This morning lecture will be followed by a one-hour lunch break. After lunch, a two-hour afternoon lecture will be presented by an attorney who will speak about challenging issues that are more likely than others to derail a mediation case. The lecture will be followed by a thirty-minute Q&A period.

Day 2 of the Program will include a two-hour morning lecture by a Business Valuation Expert, followed by a thirty-minute Q&A period and then a one-hour lunch period. The afternoon session of Day 2 of the Program will include a collaborative exercise related to the material learned in the previous three sessions, during which participants will be split into workgroups.

Attendees will need a computer with access to the internet, a webcam and a quiet place, free from distraction to participate.

American Association of Mediators Members receive a $75 discount when using code "AAM" at Registration.
